FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE CENTRE ACT (“FICA”)

In terms of FICA the FSP is registered as an accountable institution. The FSP follows a risk-based approach to money laundering and related activities. By following this approach the FSP is required to identify all prospective clients and verify their given information, as well as keep records in respect thereof.

Application of a risk-based approach implies that the FSP can accurately assess the risks involved with a business relationship and to apply the appropriate methods and levels of client verification.

The FSP must and will report any suspicious and unusual transactions that may facilitate any money laundering to the relevant authorities.

DISCLAIMER

Investors should take cognisance of the fact that there are risks involved when buying, selling or investing in any financial product. The value of financial products can increase as well as decrease over time, depending on the value of the underlying securities and market conditions.

Past returns may not be indicative of future returns and an investor should seek independent professional financial, legal and tax advice relevant to their individual circumstances before making any investment decision. Investors should also take cognisance of the fact that Hedge Funds are collective investment schemes to which the prescribed provisions of the Collective Investment Schemes Control Act (No. 45 of 2002) apply.
